TACHE LEADERSHIP ACADEMY 2016-17

Program Description

The TACHE Leadership Academy is a professional development program designed to develop leadership within the organization and its member institutions from across the state of Tennessee. Activities are designed to enhance the value of continuing education programming by improving organizational awareness with the Academy Fellows, TACHE leadership, and continuing education partners. This will be accomplished through regional project development, ongoing dialogue, case studies, reflective writing from selected leadership articles, journaling, and interactive activities.

*One day a month, the participants attend the class sessions via Go-To Meeting, Regional Meeting, or Annual Conference. Applicant's participation in these scheduled meetings is required for graduation.

Group Projects

Participants are required to complete a capstone project in order to graduate. The projects are assigned at the beginning of the program, and will require additional time outside of the class sessions. A capstone presentation during the annual state conference will conclude the leadership academy experience.

Benefits to Participants

The benefits of participating in TACHE Leadership Academy:

- Provides an opportunity to meet other educational leaders and create a professional network within the State of Tennessee.
- Increases visibility of individual and their organization.
- Provides the opportunity to serve their institution and TACHE through the group projects.
- Allows you to develop leadership skills and provides the opportunity to apply these newly acquired skills.
- Increases your awareness of programs, issues, and opportunities that exist in higher education.
